

List of required documents for membership application

- Proof of NGO registration issued by the government of the country (in the case whereby the NGO/ organization cannot be registered with the government for political or other reasons, the application must be accompanied by a profile of the organization and a brief explanation of the reason for non-registration);
- A copy of the mission statement of the organization;
- The contact details of 2 persons who will ensure the organization's commitment;
- A brief description of the current projects and key focus areas of the organization;
- A membership application letter accompanied by a statement that the organization would like to sign on to the ACCA declaration;
- 2 recommendation letters from 2 member organizations.

